In Memoriam

Luzviminda “Minda” Sunga Santangelo, MD

February 13, 1953 - December 16, 2017

FEUDNSMAF
Secretary 2006-
2014

Proud and unflinching mother of sons Carlo Vito, Vincent, and Christopher – and fiercely loyal and dependable wife of Col (Dr.) Vincent V. Santangelo, passed away at 12:07pm on the sixteenth of December, 2017 after a sudden and unexpected illness. She drifted peacefully and painlessly into the Infinite with all four of her "boys" at her side. In addition to her husband and sons, "Minda" is survived by Carlo's wife Danielle and their son Remy, as well as Chris's wife Shannon and their son Jackson and daughter Nya.

The daughter of agricultural landowner Anacleto and school teacher Dionisia Benitez Sunga, Dr. Santangelo was born in Sultan Kudarat, Mindanao, Philippines on February 13th, 1953. She worked hard at her studies and eventually rose to the level of physician, receiving her medical degree from Far Eastern University Dr. Nicanor Reyes Medical Foundation in 1977. While engaged in her residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University, she met her future husband Vincent who was studying there as a medical student. The two were married in Vincent's senior year, just prior to him receiving his medical degree in 1982. Upon emigrating to the United States, Minda eventually specialized in Pediatrics and practiced this specialty until the onset of her illness. She always put the needs of her Family, Friends, and Patients way ahead of her own. Great friend to everyone who knew her, she was the Light to which we were all drawn.

To everyone she knew, she was a surgeon, pediatrician, and dispenser of cures. Always professional, stunning, and stylish; she was also a cook, a baker, and a proud Colonel's wife!

Mahal Ka Namin (We love you) Mama. We WILL see you again. ~ Col (Dr.) Vincent V. Santangelo, sons Carlo Vito, Vincent, and Christopher

TRIBUTES FOR DR. SANTANGELO

"I don't exactly remember how we met. Minda and I were two freshmen at Far Eastern University, but when we did - we hit it off. We registered for the same classes and had the same vacant periods, so we could hang out together. I invited her and another classmate and spent weekends at my parent's house in Quezon City. My Dad loved it when I brought home girlfriends as I'm an only daughter. We did girl's things, laughing & talking all night. I finally had sisters! And my brothers liked them both too.

Our core group of friends grew to include some people that are still our friends to this day. Finally, we graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in 4 years but we wanted to be doctors, so we applied to medical school and we were both accepted to FEU and started our medical education. We were in different sections - I was in section A and she was in section C, but we shared some classes together and remained close friends. We were both gift carriers at our graduation mass at the FEU chapel.

We drifted apart during our post graduate internship and rural service; but we reunited as residents at FEUDNRMF Hospital in 1978. I was in Internal Medicine, she was in OB-GYN. We just picked up where we left off. I remember those days in our female residents' quarter, the laughing, the stories & gossips, the late-night devouring of whatever were leftovers from the kitchen or cans of "Ligo" sardines over "bahaw" if we had a busy night on call and the occasional "bickering" like sisters do. I remember the courtship between her and Vincent, her being "pakipot" but eventually relented, got married and moved to New York in 1982 to start a new life with Vincent.

Although we did not communicate regularly, our friendship was there. In 1983, I came through New York for 2 weeks on my way to Birmingham, Alabama for my fellowship. We met in New York and spent some time together. She was now a mother to Carlo Vito and doing a residency in OB-GYN at Flushing General. The next time I visited her for a few days, she went into labor with little Vincent the day I was leaving. Although her residency training was interrupted by pregnancies, she persisted and eventually completed a residency in Pediatrics. I remember sleeping in the residents' on call room at Flushing General in 1987 because she was on call and we were going to our 10th year reunion in Atlantic City the next day.

We kept in touch over the years while we raised our families. Christopher was born a month after my eldest son. She had 3 boys and I have 2 boys. My oldest is a Yankee fan, so we would go to a Yankee game and stay with Tita Minda and Tito Vincent. Vincent and my husband became great friends too.

After the kids were grown and gone from home, we still got together for occasional Broadway shows, dinner & sightseeing in New York. Her health was failing by then, ravaged by diabetes and its complications. She would get short of breath just walking. She was hard headed as usual and needed some serious talking to at times. When Christopher got assigned to Panama City, Florida, she and Vincent would stop by Birmingham, Alabama on their road trip there. I saw my friend withering away. I thought we were going to lose her last year, but she bounced back. She looked good and was in good spirits the last time I saw her the Tuesday before this past Thanksgiving. Our class reunion in Los Angeles this past July had invigorated her, her grandchildren had given her a will to live and she was so looking forward to our Manila reunion in January 2018. Alas! it was not to be.

That fateful Tuesday 12/12/2017, I spoke to her on the phone several times. She was so excited that she finally booked her tickets to the Philippines, arranged for her dialysis and was going to book her hotel room. I gave her the information and we talked about our plans when we got there. We laughed, gossiped a little and made plans to meet in Panama City on Jan 31st for Christopher's promotion celebration. Later that evening I got the sad news from Vincent that she had a massive hemorrhagic stroke & was in a coma. There was no chance for recovery. My dear friend passed away peacefully on 12/16/2017 with her 3 boys and Vincent by her side. Scott and I went to say our goodbyes and saw her for the last time. She was pretty as always and seemed to be only sleeping. I will always cherish the memories we had, my friend. We laughed, we cried, we fought but most of we loved as sisters always do. I'm glad I got to say, "I love you" on that last phone call.

I will miss hearing your voice, but I will still be talking to you. You will always live in my heart.

So long my dear Minda, I will see you again someday." ~ Araceli Garcia Sweeney, M.D.

FEUDNRMF Class '77

DEDICATED FRIEND

"I had the privilege to know and work with Minda for several years. She was a true and faithful friend to the point that she will go out of her way to help you. Minda was such a humble, unassuming person, a well-known workaholic, and a faithful and devoted wife to Vincent. A dedicated mother and grandmother - she took pride of her three good looking and well achieved children and adored her grandchildren.

I am grateful that we had the opportunity to work side by side for FEUDNRSMAF-USA, with her as Secretary and yours truly as Treasurer. She was awarded "Alumnus of the Year" by FEUDNRSMAF during her 25th Class Reunion. The Association of the Philippine Physicians of New York will forever be grateful for her leadership, devotion and untiring service as Past President.

Despite her precarious medical condition - Minda forced herself to attend the 2017 FEUDNRSMAF Scientific Convention and Reunion held in Long Beach, California; because she said, "Maybe this will be my last time to see my classmates and friends from FEU". We regret that we did not have the opportunity to have brunch and spend the day with them in beautiful West Point.

Personally – she will forever leave a void in my heart – for all that she had done for me, and for just being a friend. I will miss her.

Goodbye Minda. You are now with the Almighty. May you rest in eternal piece".

~ Grace Budy-Rabadam, MD., Past Treasurer FEUDNSMAF, Class '63

COURAGE

"Minda served for 8 years as the tireless Secretary for FEUDNRSMAF. During some of that time, I had the great pleasure of working with her during my term as President and Chairman. I admired Minda for her quiet courage, determination, and for the many selfless contributions she freely gave to the FEUDNRSMAF despite her medical condition, which was unbeknownst to many members.

We will miss you very much Minda, but we know you are in the good hands of our Lord". Thank you. ~ Oscar Tuazon, MD, Past President and Chairman FEUDNRSMAF, Class '73

"Thank you Minda"

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN - Noli Guinigundo, MD, Class '62

The year 2017 ended with the loss of our esteemed colleagues and friends – Dr. Cesar V Reyes and Dr. Luzviminda Santangelo. The core of their greatness was in what they gave - the gift of themselves to make a difference. Their memories and contributions to FEUDNSMAF will always be treasured and remembered. May their examples of volunteerism to FEUDNSRMAF inspire us all to do the same, seize opportunities and work as ONE, as we open the New Year. On a personal note – wishing one and all a Happy and Prosperous New Year 2018.

As you read this Issue – some of us will be in Manila for the Balik FEU 2018. You will have a chance to relate and read what transpired at the next issue of Ectopic Murmurs. While we will be conducting Foundation business, this trip will also be another chance to see our brothers and sisters in the Philippines, and to visit Ding' s hometown of Lucban, Quezon.

We will award deserving faculties and students depending on our financial situation. As previously discussed, medallions for Diamond, Emerald, Gold, Silver, which will be generics. This is to fulfill forceful request to furnish those who just plainly forgot to bring their medals to the celebration. Thus, I am asking each individual alumnus/alumna to take the responsibility of carrying their own medallions. Some of the golden and silver jubilarians will partly receive their medallions during the Balik FEU, because not everyone can attend the Balik FEU.

I am sponsoring SAA for excellence in Legal Medicine for Atty. Serafin C Guinigundo, my late father who had just received the Golden Medallion together with several guerillas who served under the United States Army in the Far East (USAFFE) World War II. This was recently held in Washington, DC. Incidentally, I was lucky enough to be able to use part of his Educational Benefit.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - Licerio "Jun" Castro, MD, Class '73

A Very Happy and Prosperous New Year to everyone. 2018 is here at last and may it bring us all a joyous year, a new beginning, a better life. The Christmas festivities and spirit are still within us hoping they would never end brought back memories when we were kids. Indeed, December 2017 was a period of merriment as we were surrounded by our relatives, loved ones and friends and at the same time a moment of celebration on the life of 3 of our beloved alumni.

Dr. Cesar Reyes, a brother and a colleague who belonged to Class 1968 passed away on the early hours of December 4, 2017. We were not prepared to receive the sad news from his beloved wife, Mrs. Elisa Reyes of his untimely death. He was the Editor of the Ectopic Murmurs for 2 decades, served also as an Executive Director of the organization with a long list of past positions and achievements. Several of his friends, Board of Trustees, classmates, colleagues and relatives witnessed the solemn services at his wake which was held at the Hallowell & James Funeral Home in Downers Grove, Illinois. Members of his prayer group filled the room with religious music and prayers. The following day, many of us braved the winter weather of Illinois as he was brought from the Divine Savior Parish Church to his final resting place at the Clarendon Hills Cemetery in Westmont Illinois. Dr. Reyes will forever be remembered for his unselfish services to our organization, to his community and to the needy. A special edition of the Ectopic Murmurs was dedicated in his honor to pay tribute to a very special person.

On December 16, 2017 Dr. Luzviminda Santangelo passed away in New York. She was surrounded by her loving husband, Dr. Vincent Santangelo, her children and members of her graduating class of 1977 as she joined our Lord in Heaven. Minda served as the FEUDNRSMAF Secretary for many years and an officer of different organizations in New York. She held those positions with distinction and served well. We owe a debt of gratitude for all the years of sacrifices that Minda had exhibited in the pursuit of her work. Dr. Grace Rabadam, officer of FEUDNRSMAF represented us at the wake which was held at R. Stutzman and Son Funeral Home at Queens village, New York. To our sister Minda, you will forever be in our hearts.

On December 7, 2017, Dr. Stephen Faller of Class 1992, left this world for a better place in the arms of our Lord. He was a loving husband, a caring father and a brother to Fr. Faller of Kamay Ni Jesus in Lucban Quezon. During the services at Forest Lawn in Glendale, California, Drs. Danny and Linda Fabito, Daisy and I heard Fr. Faller's message that his healing powers were not intended for his brother because the Lord had a different role for Steve. Relatives, friends and representatives of Class 1992 delivered their messages for our beloved alumnus. Prayer service was held at the Holy Trinity Church in Glendale, CA and internment was at Forest Lawn in Glendale, CA.

To the families of our departed colleagues, the entire FEUDNRSMAF organization will be with you always.

January is synonymous with Balik- FEU, a traditional set of events that will be occurring in the vicinity of the FEUNRMF Medical School. Several of us will be in attendance as we grace the celebrations in our alma mater. In line with our commitments to promote academic excellence, the Foundation will give several Academic Awards to deserving students and Faculty Incentives for a promising future for our alma mater. Scholarships and Professorial Chair awards will be handed also with the hopes of ensuring further academic excellence among the ranks.

Different class years will be recognized during the Gala Night and presented with medallions to honor them for all their hardships, achievements and accomplishments. It's a night to remember. We must give credit also to all our members and brothers who are in pursuit of humanitarian endeavors through Medical and Surgical Missions. Several groups will render free services to our countrymen in January and February sacrificing their precious time and money for the good of communities in our home country. We will see you all on the road as I will be in tandem with you.

The leadership and the Nevada Chapter are also preparing for our Summer Annual Convention which will be held at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, Nevada on July 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th 2018.

To register, please click this link, <https://aws.passkey.com/go/SCFEU8>, or copy to your browser. Please refrain from calling to avoid being charged an extra $15.00. Registration fees will be published at the Ectopic Murmurs for your guidance. Please reserve early to avail of the discounted room rates and be mindful of the "cut – off date" which is Monday, June 4, 2018.

As we transition into a new format relevant to the Foundation and alumni, Ectopic Murmurs is being presented to you through the concerted efforts of our editors Dr. Hernani Tansuche and Dr. Amethyst Cureg.

Stay healthy and be safe.

IN THE NEWS: DR HERMAN LOCSIN HEDRIANA, CLASS '83 SLATED FOR PROMOTION AS PROFESSOR AND MATERNAL FETAL DIVISION DIRECTOR UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA DAVIS (UCD)

Dr. Hedriana is a Diplomate and Fellow of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology and Diplomate in Maternal-Fetal Medicine. He is currently the Medical Director for Naterra Inc, a San Francisco area-based biotech genetic diagnosis company known for their non-invasive prenatal testing. Currently part-time at UCD, he was recently invited to UCD as fulltime faculty and take the helm as UCD Director Division of Maternal Fetal Medicine, department of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

In March 2018, Dr. Hedriana will be the first foreign medical graduate to take a leadership position in the department of obstetrics and gynecology at UC Davis. His research interest is preterm prevention and risk assessment, maternal early warning signs, and authored/co-authored refereed articles and abstracts. He is an active volunteer for the March of Dimes for 16 years involved in prematurity prevention, health care disparities and healthcare policies in California communities.

Dr. Hedriana has graciously lent his expertise to the FEUDRSMAF Scientific Convention as a frequent guest lecturer; and will be presenter at the 39th FEUDNRSMAF Annual Scientific Convention and Reunion in July 2018, to be held at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. He is the 40th Dr. Lauro Panganiban Memorial lecturer and will present "Evolution of Prenatal Screening" during the Balik FEU at Fairview, Quezon City on Jan. 18, 2018. Dr. Hedriana is also an FEUNRMF Institute of Medicine Visiting Professor for the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The editorial staff of Ectopic Murmurs (EM) received the following excerpted email eulogies for our esteemed colleague and friend after the Cesar V Reyes MD Memorial Issue was released in December 2017, which we are now sharing with you. - EM Team

"We have lost a dynamic, energetic, dedicated and compassionate Editor Dr. Cesar V. Reyes, and it will be difficult to find one of his caliber with his well-known professionalism, dedication, leadership, talent and skills that are very tough to replenish. Cesar was an extraordinary person and talented individual, worked tirelessly over the years for our alumni foundation with his superb writing and meticulous editing talents. His cheerful energy, good-naturedness and diplomatic disposition were all attributes we cherished in Cesar.

The saying goes: "What matters is not the idea a man holds, but the depth at which he holds it." Dr. Cesar V. Reyes left a legacy that is more lasting and more powerful than material things. It is a summation of his entire life on earth with profound impact to our school, alumni and friends and humanity. He was a true one-of-a-kind gentleman with his spirit and presence who will be sorely missed.

To Cesar may you rest in peace and many thanks for the precious memories we have shared with you". ~ Cesar D. Candari, MD, FCAP Emeritus, Class '61

" I am saddened by Cesar passing and my heartfelt condolences to his family. Cesar was instrumental in nominating me for the Dr Lauro Panganiban Memorial lecture series for the 40th homecoming this January as well as the invitation to lecture in the July clinical meeting. I could never say no to his invitations and he has been there to watch me grow in academia. The only thing I regret is the inability to tell him personally that his prediction was correct that the last step in my career is to make tenured professor at UC Davis. I will never forget his smile as he would if I had the opportunity to share this appointment ". ~ Dr. Herman Hedriana, Class '83

" I am deeply saddened to hear the news about Dr. Cesar Reyes. Condolences to his family. He will be missed". Dr. Maria-Christina Javier, Class '92

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

The Student Achievement Awards (SSA) were started in 1978. There were 47 awards with trust funds and 44 SAA without trust funds. Subsequently, most of the donors gave a one-time funding of $1050 and monetary awards given were from the interest generated. Most of the donors named the individual awards in honor of a loved one or parent/s. Currently, there are 107 individual SAA and several onetime awards for a subject including outstanding student from the freshman - junior year level and an outstanding student from 1st-3rd year level. These awards are given at every Balik FEU homecoming in January.

Criteria for determining the award is based on the top two students in each subject based on a predetermined GWA. No award is given if the student/s did not reach the targeted grade. Since there are multiple donors for a subject, the Committee rotates the awards yearly to accommodate all the donors for that subject. The list has presently 36 awardees and 26 of these are our Foundation scholars including the outstanding students at all year levels and the best from 1st-3rd year level.
